Have you ever read
the "Golden Key" by Emmet Fox? It's a 6
page pamphlet that can change your life.

Check out the literature table at your meetings. Reading is just one of our tools!

Chairing meetings, making coffee, reading "How It Works", cleaning up after the meeting,
these are tools too.
Stay active and get involved.

Did you know that there is a meeting
before the meeting? This is true!
Someone opens the church one hour
before you get there.
Thank you to all the coffee makers!

Are there young people at your meeting that need to get involved with other young people?

Suggest they visit our web site and see where and what the young are doing in AA for good clean fun.

Have you ever been asked to start the meeting with a pray and been afraid? You're not the only one. Try a pre-written prayer!

Lord we ask you blessings on this meeting. Please bless the spirit and purpose of the group.

Give us strength to follow this program, according to Your will, and in humility, forgive us for yesterday, grant us courage for today, and hope for tomorrow.

Annonomus

Young People's Groups try to make the newcomer understand that 20 + years of drinking coupled with the loss of family, friends, and finances are not necessary for one to be ready for sobriety. Young People's Groups bring the newcomer into the mainstream of AA Recovery, Service, and Unity through the Twelve Steps, Twelve Traditions, and the Twelve Concepts of World Service, carrying AA's message to the suffering alcoholic. Young People's Groups are in no way separate from Alcoholics Anonymous. Members of Young People's Groups are involved in and committed to Twelve Step work, hospital and institution work, public information, general service, and every other facet of AA service. Newcomers are shown by people their own age that using AA principles in their daily lives and getting involved in AA service can lead to a lasting and comfortable sobriety.

EACYPAA is the acronym for Eastern Area Convention of Young People in Alcoholics Anonymous.

A.A. members from Ann Arbor and all across the state of Michigan went to place a bid for the convention to held here in 2010. All of their hard work won and now we are delighted to announce that EACYPAA 9 will be held in Michigan in 2011!
